Our Passion

Here at Miass we are passionate about our products.
Whether its making a sample from your very own design.
Or an order from our very own collection,
we will set to work on giving you a competitive price.

Once we receive your order we can begin producing your products.
Our glass manufacturing process makes the finest quality glassware.
All our glass is hand blown giving each piece its personal touch.

Whether using recycled glass or natural raw materials.

You can be assured our artisans can create beautiful unique hand crafted items every time.
From design to the finished item every process is checked ensuring we achieve a high quality product.

Once each finished item is checked for quality
it's securely packed in our factory ready to be shipped.
Depending on the design requirements and the quantity.
Orders usually take from four to twelve weeks to completion.

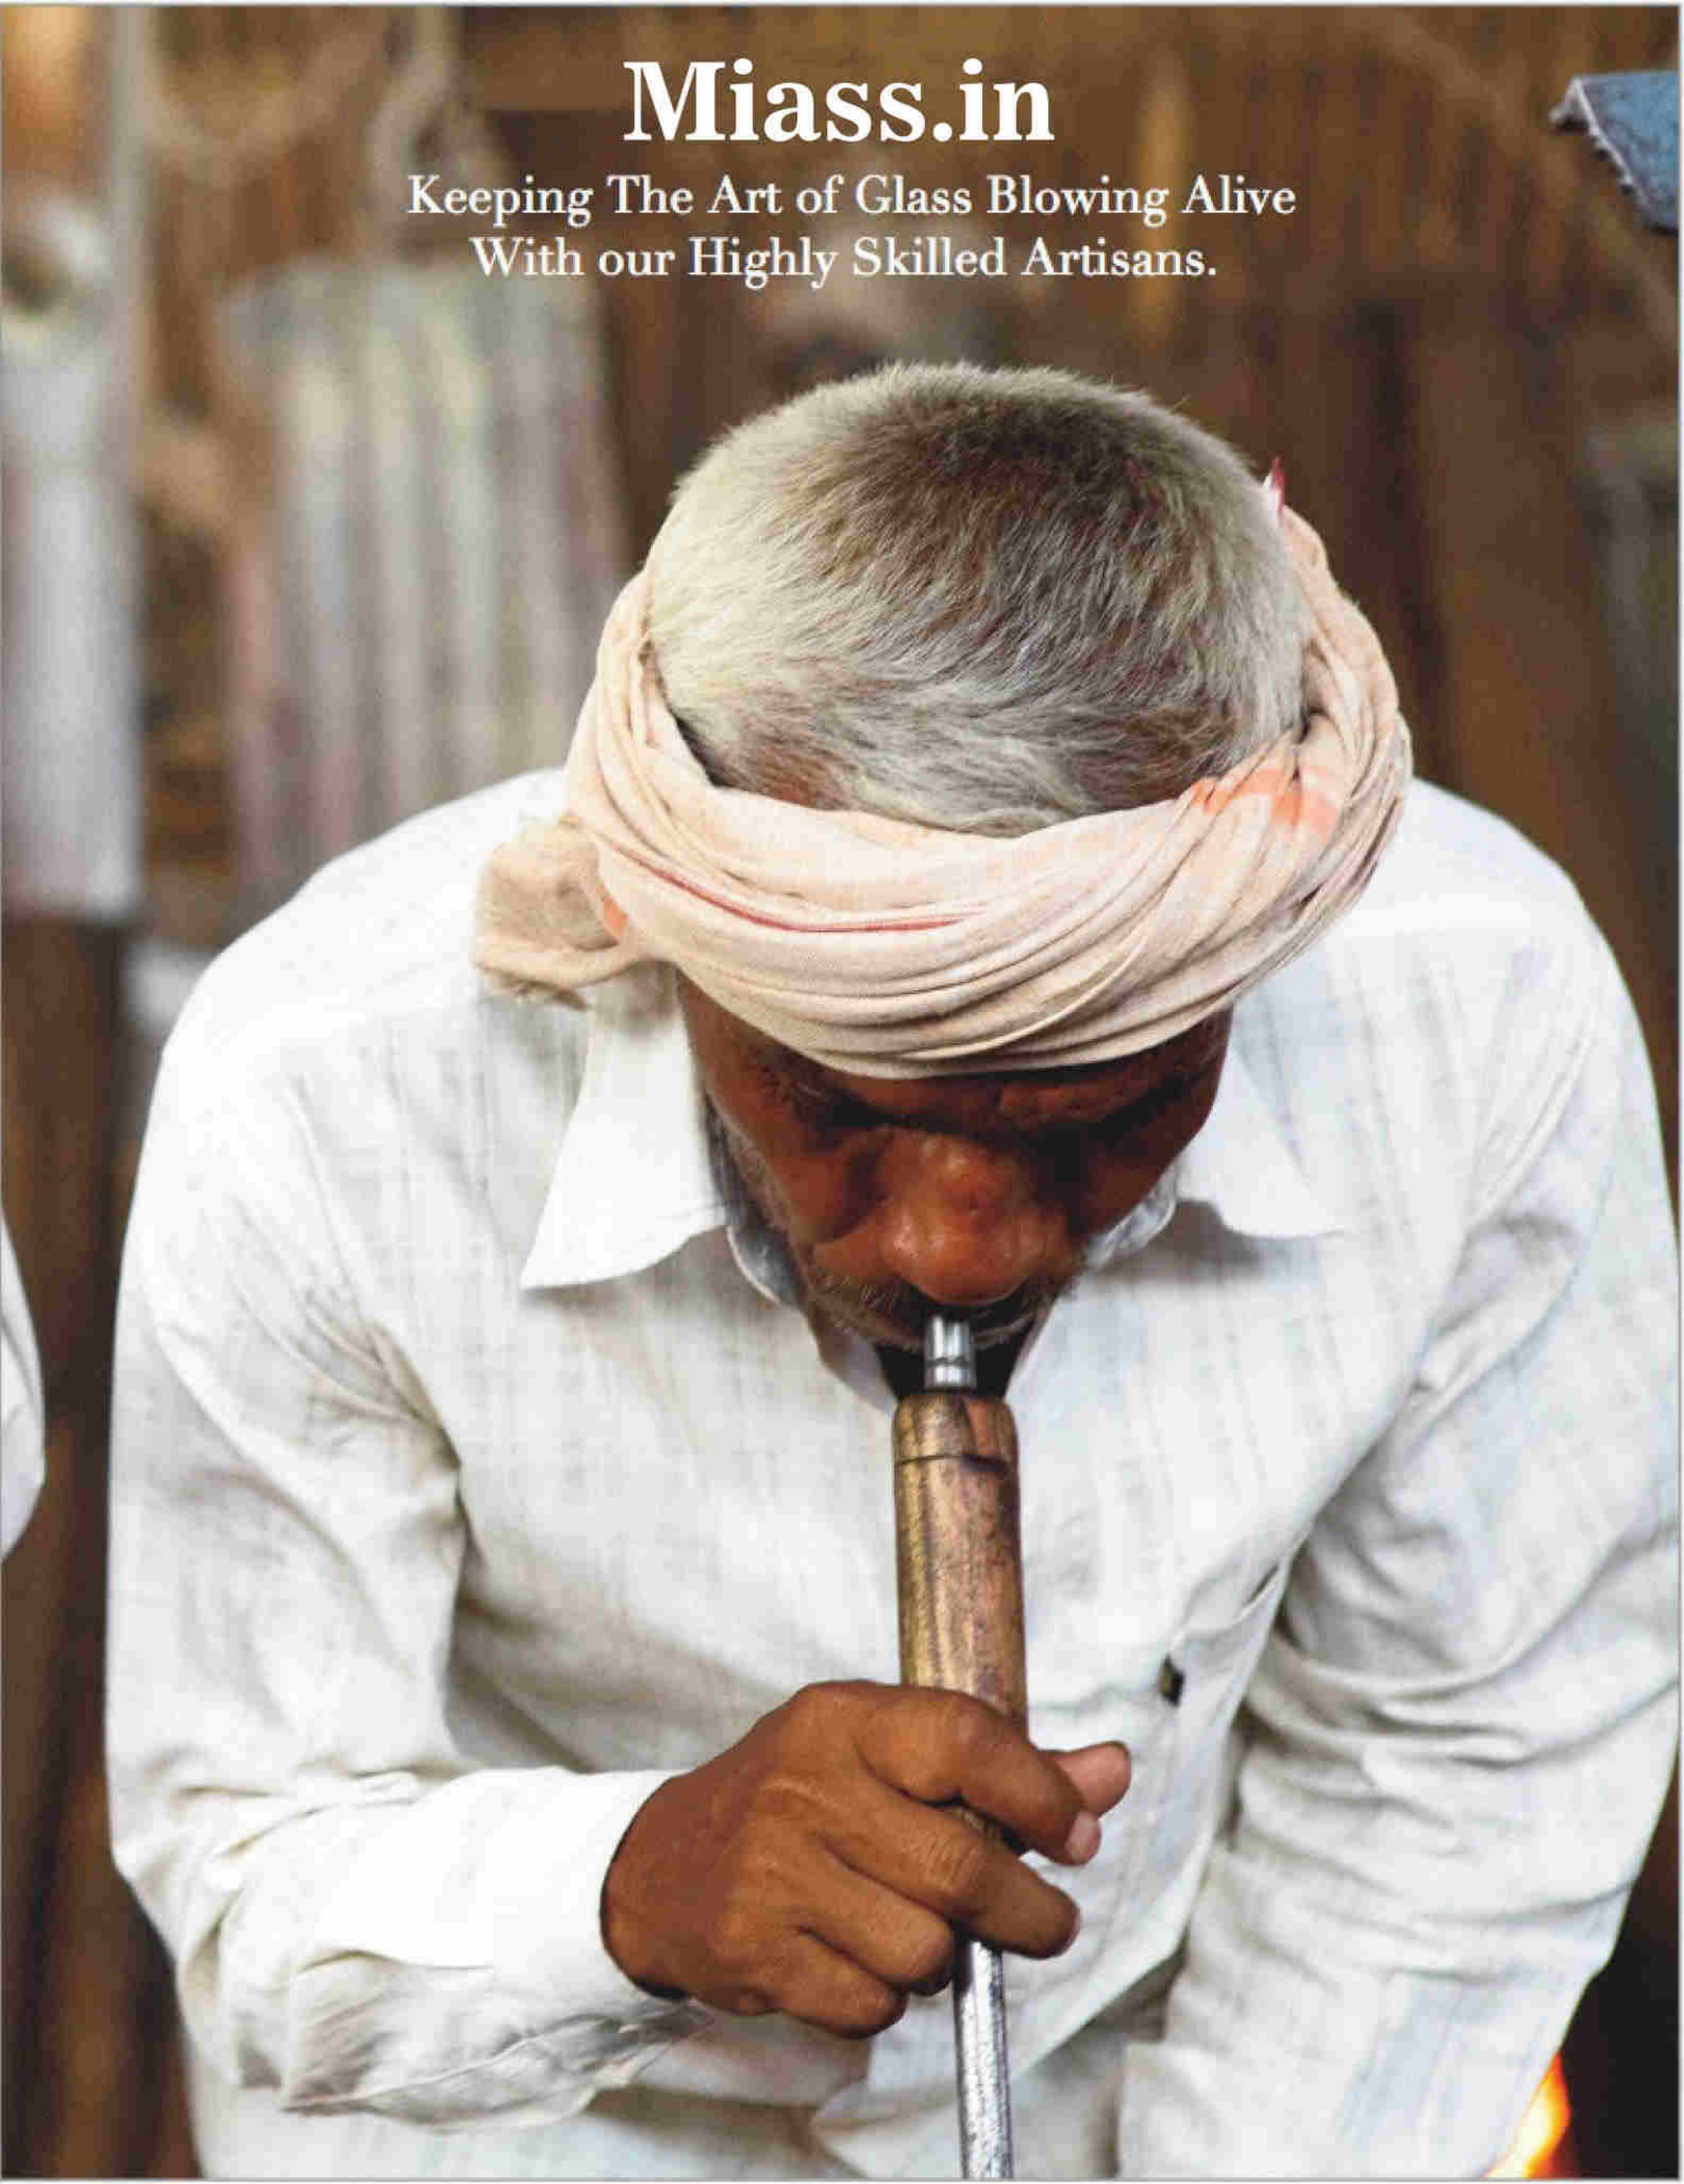

If you want any of the pieces in our magazine
please quote the product code shown by each item.

Miass

our promise

Our Promise at Miass is to help provide much needed work for rural communities.
Giving the artisans the ability to educate their children, provide a safe home environment and the ability to grow their business and pass on their skills.

At the same time we like to work with our artisans in helping them with safer working practices.

Using recycled materials where-ever possible while being friendly to their environment.

We do not condone child or forced labour,
We aim to reduce poverty for all our Artisans and their families by paying fairly.
We make sure we give our artisans realistic time scales to complete their work.
We give work to men and women with no discrimination

Most of our materials are from sustainable recycled sources.
When raw materials are required, we like to buy from our local suppliers.

Miass works hard to make sure any waste product from our manufacturing is recycled or disposed of correctly without impact on the local environment.

We hope you will understand our ethics
Improving lives and environment is ongoing and ever changing, by placing an order with Miass you will be helping give artisans a better life, while helping improve the environment.

And on behalf of everyone at Miass
Thank you.

Empowering Women

We at Miass are involved in the social uplift of women.
Contributing to women's empowerment.

Giving them equal and fair wages, providing them with the flexibility to work in their own time and convenience.

And where required the ability to work from home especially in rural areas.

We see the great advantages of empowering women and the benefit it makes to the community and their families.

Making for a happy home environment.
